Cryptocurrency exchanges are websites where you can buy, sell, or exchange cryptocurrencies for other digital currency or traditional currency like US dollars or Euro. For those that want to trade professionally and have access to fancy trading tools, you will likely need to use an exchange that requires you to verify your ID and open an account.

TradingView is now integrated with many of the major brokers and the company is working on integrating more all the time. This means, according to TradingView, that you can trade directly on the platform through our supported, fully verified and user-reviewed brokers in just a few clicks.

Another way to buy and sell digital currencies is by going through a Broker, it is however the Broker that determines the exchange rate and as such you are going to be best advised to shop around to ensure the one you choose is offering you the best exchange rate, no matter whether you are buying or selling a digital currency.

This API lets brokers build a bridge to connect their backend systems to the TradingView interface, so that broker partners then can be supported on the TradingView Web Platform. The integration is very straightforward. The broker builds a REST Web API on its own servers based on our specification so that it can be connected to TradingView. TradingView provides a sandbox and required technical assistance to get your TradingView Web Platform integration started.
