In my opinion, Coinbase stock seems to be directly tied to the crypto market at large. They went public and crypto started crashing. As far as if they are a terrible company or not, I think complaints in a subreddit wouldn't be a good way to gauge something. Pretty much every crypto company subreddit has complaints in it.

Opposed to a custodial exchange that requires control of your funds, a non-custodial exchange allows you to trade without handing over your funds to a third-party and the ability to maintain control over your private keys. If you are the only person with access to your private keys, only you can choose what happens with your funds, and this is one of the reasons non-custodial exchanges can be extremely secure to use.
