Other Cryptocurrency Exchanges You Can Trust Binance is the largest cryptocurrency exchange by volume and that's going to be important for trader but it's been having trouble with regulators lately. The international platform has had to suspend payments in British pounds or euros and stop taking new customers in different regions.

As the dip continues and fear gets the better of you, it's important to find an exchange you trust. Platforms don't always serve the best interest of the customer. Rather than being a neutral party to transactions, like a stock exchange, a crypto platform can trade against customers, meaning clients are at risk of being treated unfairly.

Before we go any further, lets understand what we mean by centralized and decentralized exchanges. Centralized and Decentralized Exchanges Centralized Exchange - Every exchange of this type has their own order book which receives and reviews all trade orders and matches them accordingly using their own software and servers. In short, the order is processed by an internal closed system. Decentralized Exchange - Naturally

No. Final Verdict: Centralized Vs Decentralized Cryptocurrency Exchange. Although a centralized exchange is more user-friendly and potentially safer, a decentralized exchange is a revolutionary innovation that will most likely become the industry standard in the future.
