Cryptocurrencies are already tricky and complicated enough, so a common concern is not losing money due to the fluctuations in the market and the hefty fees as well. Generally, the medium crypto transaction fee on the market is about $0.15-0.25 (and up to $25 for Bitcoin and Ethereum in a busy time like now).

2. Coinbase Text Scam Scammers also love to use text messages to try to trick Coinbase users. They falsely claim that there is an attempted withdrawal from your Coinbase account and they instruct you to click on the embedded link to resolve the issue. Fraudsters set up scam customer support phone lines and impersonate a variety of companies including Coinbase in the finance, tech, retail, telecom, and service industries. These scam phone numbers are spammed on the internet, luring unsuspecting victims seeking assistance. The scammers may also conduct outbound calls directly to potential victims.

I used to buy Crypto through Crypto.com by funding my account in Euros from TransferWise (since I can't do this with a bank account or my credit card in my country anymore) and this has worked fine since Feb last year but when I tried to do it today they said "The policy says we don't support transfers related to payments for the purpose of purchasing cryptocurrencies."

The Coinbase user called a number associated with the notification. An unknown individual answered the call and changed the user's account, allowing much of the money to be transferred out of their account. Cryptocurrency scams remain a potential issue for investors.
