In the U.S., penny stocks are defined as stock shares that trade for $5 each or less. They're generally thinly traded. This means they are traded infrequently and it's difficult to accurately price them. This can also make them difficult to sell. Sometimes unexpected companies can fit broadly into the penny-stock category.

Use this $50 referral link to create your free account. You must then complete your registration and account verification process for the site within 30 days. (Note: ID isn't required.)
