It's the mix of many factors: They don't have as many altcoins as Binance but still many, they offer staking for some coins (although not many and not the best rates), they are a registered company in a country with a solid legal system and with real offices and known people (unfortunately that means you need to do their terrible KYC process), you can buy.

The first thing you need to do is to connect your Binance account with the trading bot you wish to use. Once you are connected, create new API keys by setting the 2FA. Finally, you are all set to create your automated trading strategy. ???? How do I pick the best crypto trading bot?
